OCTOBER 2017

SoWa Art + Design District

BOARDING PASS

BOSTON'S SOUTH END

Step away from the cobblestone streets of Beacon Hill and the cheers of Red Sox fans in Fenway Park to explore this vibrant, trendy neighborhood. Start at the South End Buttery to munch on homemade breakfast sandwiches while admiring photos of the neighborhood's rescue pets, a campaign that co-owner Richard Gordon started to promote animal adoption. Nearby, wander the SoWa Art + Design District's 38 galleries to see art of all kinds or head over to the SoWa Open Market to visit more than 100 vendors every Saturday and Sunday through October. The third weekend of this month, dive into the neighborhood's past with a self-guided walking South End House Tour. End the day with Bohemian food and live music covering jazz, Latin, country and more at The Beehive, tucked in The Boston Center for the Arts.
