SPIRIT OF NEW ORLEANS

MSY

Those looking for something outside of the Big Easy's traditional party scene can trade in those spirits for spirits from another realm. Add some spook to your step with a graveyard walking tour from Save Our Cemeteries and see the resting places of notables from the city's rich but troubled history. Herbs, incense and handcrafted goods await at the Island of Salvation Botanica, where you can attend a healing ceremony by voodoo priestess Sallie Ann Glassman, said to mediate with the dead. Grab dinner at Muriel's Jackson Square—the shrimp and grits are just as popular as the resident ghost—but be careful: You may not want to eat before checking out the stomach-churning Museum of Death nearby. End your day at one of the most haunted hotels in the city, the French Quarter's Bourbon Orleans Hotel.
